

Certification Regarding Payment Advices or Other Evidence of Earnings

- All payment advices or summaries of earnings prepared by the employer) in the possession of the debtor(s) for entire 60 day period prior to the signing of the bankruptcy petition are being filed. If some payment advices are not available, the debtor(s) hereby represent(s) that the payment advices actually filed are representative of earnings for the entire 60 days period.
- The payment advices for the debtor(s) have been misplaced, inadvertently discarded, or never received from the employer and debtor(s) have made diligent efforts to obtain duplicates of the payment advices or a summary of earnings from the employer without success.
- The debtor(s) has/have no current earnings from employment and none within the past 60 days. Therefore, the debtor(s) are exempt from the requirement to file payment advices.
- The debtor(s) is/are self-employed and affirm(s) that the total earnings during the past sixty days are _____ for the debtor and _____ for the joint debtor.
- There are no payment advices available to document the self-employment earnings.
